San Diego FBI Field Office
10385 Vista Sorrento Parkway
San Diego, CA 92121

Dear Sirs,

I recently sent a letter and supporting documents to FBI Headquarters via registered mail, only to have it returned, moderately intact; it accompanies this cover letter. I have also stapled a copy of the tracking information to this cover letter.

For some reason it was refused at the destination according to post office personnel that I spoke with, although when I called FBI Headquarters and was connected to the mail room, they stated that they do accept registered mail. I can't tell if it was opened or not, but one side of the envelope is quite frayed.

Subsequently I spoke to the local FBI field office in San Diego, and was told that mail cannot be hand delivered, but I can send it to this address. Hence, that is the main content of this missive. I am not familiar with FBI procedures, so I would much appreciate it if you could read these letters and documents, or forward it internally to FBI headquarters securely.

Thanks for your time and attention in this very serious matter. I am available to answer questions, and remain, sincerely,

Jonathan C. Hansen, PhD
